

What's happening at Milpara Korumburra's Community House?

We hope you had an enjoyable Easter. Fingers crossed everyone survived the annual chocolate and hot cross bun overload , whilst enjoying some special time with family.

As Milpara is closed for the break, now is a great time to have a look at the courses you may be interested in during next term; please visit our website for a term program. We have a number of great weekly classes that may interest you: The Craft of Story Writing, Thai Chi, Yoga for All, Milpara Singers, Crafts with Barb; or Social Mah-jong and Jewellery Beading which alternate fortnightly between day and evening classes.

We are excited that we will be having art classes once again at Milpara. They will be on Friday mornings from May 4, pending minimum enrolments. So if you paint or draw already and would like to enhance your skills, or you would like to learn these skills, why not join Gayle for the new class.

Small Business Victoria (SBV) hold wonderful workshops right here in Korumburra. Low cost, practical the workshops are run by experts in their field..

Places are limited, so bookings for these events must be made in advance. The workshops cover a range of business topics and some offer a free mentoring session to all participants.

Milpara hosts SBV workshops each term. Taking your business online: What you need to know will be on Monday April 30 event ID E19923. Creating effective digital Marketing is on Monday May 28 event ID E19924.
